

Chart 1

Major Reductions in Homeland Security Funding in the FY03 Omnibus Appropriations Bill

Item	Funding in the Senate Appropriations Committee bills, passed unanimously in July 2002	Funding in the Fiscal Year 2003 Omnibus Appropriations Bill	Difference
Transportation Security Administration	$5.35 billion	$5.18 billion	- $170 million
INS/border security	$6.341 billion	$6.159 billion	- $182 million
Community policing grants	$1.062 billion	$928 million	- $134 million
Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)	$4.44 billion	$2.85 billion	- $1.59 billion
DOJ Office of Domestic Preparedness	$2.0 billion	$1.0 billion	- $1 billion
Firefighter grants	$900 million	$750 million	- $150 million
Interoperable communications equipment grants	$280 million	$45 million	- $235 million
Emergency operation centers	$180 million	$25 million	- $155 million
Port container security	$57 million	$12 million	- $45 million
Port technology demonstration projects	$4 million	$3 million	- $1 million
ATF explosives training initiative	$10 million	$3 million	- $7 million

Chart 2

“First Responders” Shortchanged by FY03 Omnibus Appropriations Bill

Item	Funding in the Senate Appropriations Committee bills, passed unanimously in July 2002	Funding in the Fiscal Year 2003 Omnibus Appropriations Bill, passed on February 13, 2003	difference
COPS grants	$1.062 billion	$928 million	-$134 million
Firefighter grants	$900 million	$750 million	-$150 million

Chart 3

“First Responders” Targeted by President Bush for Even Bigger Cuts Next Year

Item	Funding in the Fiscal Year 2003 Omnibus Appropriations Bill, passed on February 13, 2003	FY04 funding requested by President Bush	difference
COPS grants	$928 million	$158 million	-$770 million
Firefighter grants	$750 million	$500 million	-$250 million